Love Potion No. 9 has Couples Intertwined!

Next up as a memorable wedding date: September 9, 2009. Couples thinking of tying the knot on 09/09/09 are encouraged to consider wedding facilities offered by the Clerk-Recorder Department, which recently ranked third among the most popular county venues for weddings in KTTV/Fox 11's HOTLIST survey—the only public facilities so honored!

Picking a numeric trifecta for a wedding date is popular with couples, Orange County Clerk-Recorder and Commissioner of Marriages Tom Daly said, "Since it only happens every one hundred years."

On 07/07/07, 156 couples betting the date would lead to an extra measure of luck married at Daly's "Santa Ana facility" "at the Orange County Civic Center". Last year (08/08/08) was also very popular; 187 couples married on the eights, which signify wealth and prosperity in Chinese cultures.

Couples can choose among three special wedding ceremony facilities offered by the Clerk-Recorder Department. In Santa Ana, the marriage office is located in the Old County Courthouse, 211 W. Santa Ana Blvd. A second branch office in South Orange County can be found at the Laguna Hills Civic Center, 24031 El Toro Rd. in Laguna Hills. The newest branch office is located in historic downtown Fullerton at 201 N. Harbor Blvd.

Couples must first obtain a marriage license and make an appointment for the ceremony. Apply online for licenses and ceremonies at www.ocrecorder.com.

Space is limited, so couples should make advance reservations. To sign up or for more information, visit www.ocrecorder.com or call (714) 834-2588.
