1 + 1 + 11 = LOVE!

The Orange County Clerk-Recorder Department is doing its part to help couples more easily remember their wedding anniversaries by opening for special hours on Saturday, Jan. 1, 2011—or 1/1/11.

The department's marriage office at the Old County Courthouse, 211 Santa Ana Blvd. in Santa Ana, will be open for civil wedding ceremonies from 10 a.m. to 1:11 p.m. To make an appointment, call (714) 834-2588.

Department staffers have volunteered to work on New Year's Day and will take compensatory time off during the regular work week. "My staff's willingness to work on a major holiday weekend, for the sake of romance, is much appreciated," said Clerk-Recorder Tom Daly. "They are very devoted to serving the public."

Special Saturday hours were last offered on Valentine's Day 2009, when 50 couples tied the knot. An average of 28 couples are married on a typical weekday at the office's three marriage locations at the Old County Courthouse, the South County branch office at the Laguna Hills Civic Center and at the North County branch office in historic downtown Fullerton.

The Orange County Clerk-Recorder provides a variety of public services, including recording documents related to real property transactions, maintaining and issuing copies of birth, death and marriage certificates, issuing marriage licenses and performing civil wedding ceremonies. The department also files Fictitious Business Names and Notary Public oaths and bonds, and processes passport applications. In addition, the department oversees the Orange County Archives, a center for materials, research and education, preserving Orange County history for the public.
