CLERK-RECORDER EMPLOYEES PLAY SANTA FOR SENIORS

The generosity of Orange County Clerk-Recorder employees made the season a lot brighter this year for 60 needy seniors. That's the number of gifts employees donated to the Senior Santa & Friends program, coordinated through the county's Social Services Agency.

Disadvantaged clients of the Social Services Agency, Health Care Agency and Public Guardian received the hand-delivered gifts, which fulfilled specific requests from each senior. Gifts included coffee makers, blankets, bus passes, toaster ovens and gift cards to local stores.

Besides playing elves, the Orange County Clerk-Recorder Department provides a variety of services to the public, including recording property documents and issuing marriage licenses; copies of birth, death and marriage certificates; and passport applications. Deputy clerks also perform civil wedding ceremonies. Additionally, the department oversees the Orange County Archives, a center for materials, research and education, preserving Orange County history for the public.

The department has locations in downtown Santa Ana plus two branch offices in historic downtown Fullerton and the Laguna Hills Civic Center. Parking is free at the branch offices.
