Two Convenient Orange County Locations
For Those Wishing To Wed on Valentine's Day

Move over, Cupid. The Orange County Clerk-Recorder Department is rolling out the pink carpet for couples wanting to tie the knot on Valentine's Day, Feb. 14.

And this year there will be two places to do it. Valentine's Day ceremonies will be offered for the first time at the South County branch office in Laguna Hills, as well as the scenic Old County Courthouse in downtown Santa Ana. Also, for the first time, outside wedding ceremonies will be offered at both office locations.

Lucky couples also will be able to reserve space for their marriage ceremony in advance, as the romantic holiday continues to be the most popular day for couples to marry. The department will extend operating hours that day to accommodate demand.

"We're committed to providing couples with a special place for such a special occasion," said Clerk-Recorder Tom Daly, who serves as the county's official commissioner of marriage.

Last year, 119 wedding ceremonies were performed at the Old County Courthouse, which was festooned with flowers, hearts and ribbons. Typically, the department conducts about 30 marriage ceremonies daily.

For those wishing to tie the knot in Santa Ana, the marriage office is located in the Old Orange County Courthouse, 211 W. Santa Ana Blvd., in the Civic Center area.

To take advantage of the office's first Valentine's Day wedding ceremonies in South Orange County, visit the branch office located at the Laguna Hills Civic Center, 24031 El Toro Rd. in Laguna Hills.
