

Top 10 Reasons to Support OC Human Relations

1. Our nationally-recognized BRIDGES school inter-group relations program reduces bullying, violence, prejudice and hate on school campuses throughout Orange County.
2. OC Human Relations provides no-cost conflict resolution services to all residents of Orange County, helping people communicate peacefully.
3. More than 47,000 students, parents and teachers were reached through the BRIDGES program last year.
4. OC Human Relations takes a stand against hate and intolerance in our communities and educates others to do the same.
5. Our Community Building Program empowers diverse residents to become leaders in their own communities.
6. More than 5,500 residents received mediation services last year.
7. OC Human Relations offers the only Police-Community Reconciliation Program in the county. Over fifty disputes were handled last year.
8. BRIDGES teaches students to be respectful of others who are different from them and prepares students to take a stand against intolerance.
9. Each year, OC Human Relations honors local heroes who are working to make OC a better place for ALL.
10. Your donation is tax deductible and helps us to continue our important work in YOUR community.