Pet-Related Volunteer Opportunities

By MARYANNE DELL

The Orange County Register

Interested in volunteering to help animals?
Contact one of these groups. More information about each group can be found on its Web site:

- Animal Assistance League: This Midway City group provides care for homeless animals until permanent homes can be found. Volunteers walk dogs, socialize cats, transport animals to veterinary appointments, help with fund raising and more. Foster homes for older dogs are greatly needed. Call: Patti Buhler, (714) 893-4393. Web site: www.aaloc.com.

- Animal Network of Orange County: This group fosters and places homeless animals. Volunteers provide loving homes for animals, transport them to vets and help at adoption events. Call: (949) 644-2279. Write: P.O. Box 8662, Newport Beach, CA 92658. E-mail: foster@animalnetwork.org. Web site: www.animalnetwork.org.

- Basset Hound Rescue of Southern California: This nonprofit group rescues and finds home for basset hounds. Call: (805) 524-9353. Write: P.O. Box 32734, Long Beach, CA 90832-2734. E-mail: bassetbabe59@verizon.net.

• Capistrano Animal Rescue Effort: CARE rescues lost and abandoned cats and dogs from San Juan Capistrano. Volunteers foster animals, walk dogs, help with fund raising and working at the cattery at the San Juan Capistrano PetsMart, cleaning cages and showing cats for adoption. Call: (949) 240-1735. E-mail: info@capoanimalrescue.com. Web site: <http://capoanimalrescue.com/>

• Cats In Need: This rescue group places cats out of PetsMart stores in several Southern California locations. Volunteers help at least one or two hours a month, assisting with adoptions, making phone calls, cleaning cages and more. E-mail volunteer@catsinneed.com or Web site: <http://catsinneed.com>.

• Friends of Santa Ana Zoo: The Santa Ana Zoo at Prentice Park has a docent program whose volunteers work with animals and teach schoolchildren and families about conservation, endangered species, ecology and recycling. www.santaanazoo.org.

• German Shepherd Rescue: This group saves and finds homes for German shepherd dogs throughout California. Adoption fairs are held at local pet stores throughout Southern California. Call: Maria, (714) 773-5915. Web site: www.gsrescue.org.

• Greyhound Adoption Center: This group rescues all greyhounds, retired racing and non-racing. Its kennel in La Mesa cares for the dogs until they are ready to be adopted. All their medical needs are attended to before adoption. Volunteers care for dogs during 2- to 3-hour shifts and take dogs to adoption events, staff phones, fill catalog orders, and more: www.houndsavers.com.

• Greyhound Pets of America: This group rescues retired racing greyhounds, attends to their medical needs and places them in foster homes until permanent homes can be found. Help is needed to process the dogs when they leave the track and head for foster homes. C. Web site: www.fastfriends.org.

• Happy Cats Foundation: This rescue group places animals out of the PetsMart store at 3775 Alton Parkway, Irvine. Volunteers are needed to care for and help place cats. E-mail: Joy, joy@happycats.org. Web site: www.happycats.org.

• Haute Dogs: This Long Beach-based group helps animals in many ways, including its annual Operation Santa Paws, which collects donations – both money and items – and distributes them to local animal shelters. Web site: www.hautedogs.org.

• Hemopet: Greyhound rescue organization located in Garden Grove. Volunteers can assist in walking and grooming dogs and with kennel clean up. For details call 714/891-2232 or e-mail hemopet@hotmail.com or visit the following Web site <http://www.hemopet.com/>

• Humane Animal Rescue Team: This Fillmore-based group focuses on rescuing senior and disabled dogs, which are placed in foster homes until permanent homes can be found. Volunteers are needed to provide foster homes, check homes of potential adopters, help raise funds and more. Web site: www.hart4dogs.org.

• Irvine Animal Care Center: This animal shelter takes in animals of all types found in Irvine. Volunteers work with cats, dogs, rabbits and other animals. Its PALS group works with selected special-needs dogs. Call: (714) 724-7747. E-mail: info@irvineshelter.org. Web site: www.irvineshelter.org. Shelter location: 6443 Oak Canyon, Irvine, CA 92618.

• National Cat Protection Society: Natcat is a private, nonprofit group that cares for owner-relinquished cats and kittens while waiting to adopt them into loving homes. Volunteers are needed to provide lots of TLC to felines by grooming and socializing them, fostering underage kittens, helping with laundry, and more. An on-call handyman is greatly needed for small repairs and projects around the shelter. Call: (949) 650-1232, noon-5 p.m. Tuesday-Saturday. Web site: www.natcat.org. Location: 6904 W. Coast Hwy, Newport Beach.

• New Beginnings for Animals: This south Orange County group provides care for homeless animals until permanent homes can be found. Volunteers help with dog and cat adoptions. Web site: www.greatpets.org.

• Orange County Animal Rescue Coalition: This group works with cats and kittens, holding adoptions at the PetsMart store at 670 W. 17th St., Costa Mesa, Saturdays from noon to 4 p.m. Volunteers are needed to help at the adoptions and to foster orphaned kittens and cats until the animals are ready for adoption. Volunteer at the Orange County Zoo!

<http://www.ocparks.com/oczoo>
oczoo@ocparks.com

The Orange County Zoo, located in Irvine Regional Park, is looking for volunteers to help with a variety of zoo activities. Volunteers are an important part of the zoo, whether it's assisting the regular Animal Keepers with cleaning the exhibits, preparing diets for the animals, giving guided zoo tours, providing educational programs or other activities. The Orange County Zoo has two types of volunteers, regular volunteers and docents. All volunteers must be at least 18 years of age.

Regular volunteers assist the zoo's Animal Keepers or work on needed projects throughout the zoo. Volunteers that assist the Animal Keepers help with cleaning exhibits, preparing diets and assisting with projects. Regular volunteers can also lend their talents in many other ways – staffing the Gift Shop, horticulture, photography, animal observation, construction, maintenance, painting, general facility repairs, and more. If you are interested in participating in the regular volunteer program or would like additional information, please contact Matt Christianson, Zoo Curator at (714) 973-6845 or Matt.Christianson@rdmd.ocgov.com.

Orange County Zoo Docents are the zoo's education volunteers. Docents assist in the Zoo Education Department by giving guided tours to school children, conducting story time programs, staffing Discovery Carts with various animal artifacts, helping with special events such as "Halloween at the Zoo" and "Christmas at the Zoo." Additionally Docents may conduct educational talks, handle reptiles, assist with off-site events, direct children's crafts, and much more! A training class and manual is provided for all docents. If you are interested in becoming a docent or would like additional information, please contact Marcy Crede-Booth, Zoo Education Coordinator at (714) 973-6846 or marcy.crede@rdmd.ocgov.com.
