

Coastal Cleanup Day

September 25, 2010

OC Dana Point Harbor will join the more than 800 other locations throughout the State in the 26th annual California Coastal Cleanup Day. The State's largest volunteer event will be held on Saturday, September 25, 2010, from 9:00 am to 12:00 pm.

2010 marks the launch of a BYO (Bring Your Own) Campaign designed to encourage volunteers to help decrease the ecological footprint of the Cleanup effort. Volunteers are being encouraged to bring their own bucket or reusable bag, gloves, and reusable water bottle.

Those interested in volunteering can obtain more information by contacting OC Dana Point Harbor at (949) 923-2236, or can simply check in during the event adjacent to Jolly Roger restaurant on the Wharf.

OC Dana Point Harbor is also organizing the 4th Underwater Cleanup Event, to be held on the same day from 8:00am-12:00pm in the East Basin Marina on the cove side between Gangway L and Gangway O. This is part of OC Dana Point Harbor's continuing efforts to improve water quality in the Harbor. Previous events recovered miscellaneous debris which included wrenches, tools, chairs, a marine toilet, an outboard motor, a bicycle, and two shopping carts. Certified divers, kayakers and volunteers can register and obtain more information by contacting the Dana Point Marina Company at 949.496.6137.
